ABSENT: Assistant Director— Tom Hallman Historian— Mel Bundy Activities— John Brewer

Director— Sherm, Called the meeting to order at 7:29 pm, with 43 in attendance. The minutes from previous meeting were approved by Checker's and Bob Tate. Kudos to Bill Livingston for a great job on the website and also to Gina Sluder for the newsletter.

Assistant Director— Tom, absent

Treasurer— Dale, reported the current balance in the club's account is $1395.27. The report was approved by Denise Meyer & Lillian Lapceovich

Secretary — Liz, had nothing to report.

Editor— Gina, sent 25 Newsletters via US postal and 67 by email, 7 emails failed due to incorrect email address, so if you have not received yours— please email me with the correct address to: gina@valleychapterhog.com. March will be the last newsletter sent to members with inactive membership in National Hog & Valley Chapter Hog, so check your memberships and make sure your current in both so you do not miss out on what is going on!

Activities Director— John, absent, currently in Daytona for Bike Week

Membership— Joan, reported our club has a total of 100 members . There was no pre-ride tonight, however John & Debbie Brewer are currently in Daytona and called in prior to the meeting with an update: weather is great & having a good time. Dan & Bev Foxall are also there, and previous members Lee & Kate Hendrickson bought a house in Florida. Bill & Val McMahon called expired members to remind them about renewing memberships.

Road Captain- Bill— nothing new to report

Safety— Dan, said to enjoy the x-tra hour of daylight.

Photographer— Zack needs a new camera, still using the Ipod.

Historian— Mel, absent (He was attending the Brighton Township Historical Society meeting.)

Ladies of Harley— Joyce suggested goody bags for kids at our HOG picnic, in the past kids prizes were given out regardless of games. She also suggested a group ride to Warther's Museum in Dover Ohio, (wood carvings) about a 2 hour ride near Amish country. (Visit the Warther Carving Museum, in Dover, Ohio, and you'll experience the story of the Warther family and how the Warthers combined love of family and a love of hobbies to create an amazing legacy.)

A great suggestion and a very nice trip!!!
