Suggestions for dinner Rides...when/ where to ??

NOTE: Vertical plates can now be purchased through Penn Dot.

JOAN, (Membership) Absent/ report given by Mel, we currently have 101 paid members.

Bob, (Photographer) Nothing to report.

Val, (Ladies of Harley) Currently nothing is planned since there is so much going on. Open for suggestions. Went over picnic info, asked that everyone help by bringing ice as you can never have too much, especially if it is a "Hot" day. Meat, beer & pop is provided. Bring a wrapped gift for auction marked male/female/child (auction by Sherm) for club fundraiser. Set up for picnic is 11:00am, picnic starts at noon— plan to eat at 1:00. Bob Tate brings a snow cone machine. Games, fun & good food for all!!

Mel, (Historian) Has taken the position for the remainder of the year, Tony has other commitments and cannot fulfill the position. Went over the Hand Book for our Chapter (Guidelines/Reference Book) #4155, we have to renew every year, and must follow all the guidelines set forth by Harley Davidson. Chapter was formed in 1989. We are in Region 7/ includes Delaware, District of Columbia, Indiana, Maryland, Ohio & PA. PA has the most Chapters of all (40). Welfare was introduced in 1994 for members & immediate family/Condolences, Flowers & Get well .

Liz, (Welfare) Barb Headland had surgery, Roger said she is doing well & gave thanks from Barb to the club for prayers & flowers. Sympathy card was sent to past member Nick Vucetich, former photographer for chapter, recently passed away.

Biker Tidbits—

never fight an old geezer—if you win—there is NO glory—if you loose— your reputation is shot!

It's a good thing they make so many different kinds of motorcycles, 'cause no two people can agree on which one's the BEST!

Bill (Web Master) Leaving this weekend for Blue Ridge parkway, and Maggie Valley. Asked for pictures of your bikes for the website. Recently back from Ireland, went to Harley Dealer while there, they would not trade patches, he gave them one of ours anyway.

(Safety)

Bob Tate, Absent

Dan Lokomski, Absent
